Psalmody and Prayer — J. V. Fesko

Singing and Scripture — Rowland S. Ward

Christian prayer is understood as an act of God, as a conversation with God. Through prayer, we can find rest in the midst of our storms. Christian prayer is not just about what we say, but also about how we listen to the voice of God. Prayer is a dialog with a loving and all-powerful God.

Christian worship is not just a set of rituals or traditions, but a way of life. It is a way of expressing our faith, of declaring our dependency on God, and of seeking his guidance and provision. It is a way of acknowledging our sin and of asking for forgiveness. It is a way of celebrating our faith and of hearing the word of God.

Christian worship is a community act. It is not just an individual act, but an act of the whole community. It is a way of showing our unity and our interdependence.

Christian worship is a way of growing in our faith. It is a way of learning about God and about ourselves. It is a way of being transformed by the power of the Holy Spirit.
